PREFACE

This history is a preliminary study of JOHN WAGLE, his wife, JEMIMA TODD, and their descendants.

John Wagle was the son of John and Mary Wagle, of Pennsylvania. One chapter is devoted to a brief notice of their family, included for reference only, and without any attempt to present their history. One chapter also deals with the ancestry of Jemima Todd Wagle.

This work is published as a means of furthering the work of any person engaged in genealogical research on the Wagle name. It does not represent complete research into all available sources, but since fairly comprehensive records have been accumulated in connection with certain lines of the family, it is believed desirable to release such information pending the time a more exhaustive search can be undertaken.

Any person now developing a genealogy of the entire Wagle Family is invited to correspond with the compiler, and is free to use any or all of the data herein, provided credit is acknowledged. If members of the family note discrepancies or can add to this record, the facts should be communicated to the compiler.

JOHN WAGLE'S PARENTS

The parents of John Wagle, subject of this history, were John and Mary Wagle, of Pennsylvania.

They are believed to be the John and Mary Wagle who lived at Easton, Pennslyvania, of whom the following records exist:-

Johann Adam Wegel is shown on the list of passengers ("foreigners") imported in the ship "Phoenix," William Wilson, Captain, which sailed from Rotterdam and arrived in Philadelphia in October, 1744.

On September 24, 1754, John Wagle made known his allegience to Pennsylvania and to the British Crown, and is shown as a resident of Northampton Company, Pennslyvania. According to the terms of the law, it was not necessary for a person of a dissenting religious faith to be sworn; John Wagle availed himself of this exception which respected conscientious scruples against oaths and vows, and may thus have been a Moravian, as were most of the settlers of Easton, Pennsylvania. Persons affirming their allegience, or becoming subjects, must under the law have lived in the colonies for at least seven years, and not have been away for more than two months at any time during this period. This would have placed the entry of our John Wagle early enough to have been the Johann Adam Wegel shown in the reference just above.

During March of the year in which he became a British Subject, John Wagle had purchased land in Easton, Northampton County, from the Penn brothers, Thomas and Richard. This land he sold in 1765, as evidenced by the deed abstract following:-

THIS INDENTURE TRIPARTITE MADE THE 9TH DAY OF JANUARY 5TH YR GEORGE III, YEAR OF OUR LORD 1765, BETWEEN JOHN WAGLE OF EASTON IN THE COUNTY OF NORTHAMPTON IN THE PROVINCE OF PENNSYLVANIA YEOMAN AND MARY HIS WIFE --- --- WHEREAS IN AND BY A CERTAIN INDENTURE MADE THE FOURTEENTH DAY OF MARCH ANNO DOMINI 1754 BETWEEN THE HON. THOMAS PENN AND RICHARD PENN ESQUIRES OF THE ONE PART AND THE SAID JOHN WAGLE (BY THE NAME OF JOHN WAGELL) OF THE OTHER PART THEY THE SAID THOMAS PENN AND RICHARD PENN (RECITING AS IS THEREIN RECITED) DID GIVE GRANT AND CONFIRM UNTO THE SAID JOHN WAGLE A CERTAIN LOT OF GROUND SITUATE IN EASTON AFORSAID CONTAINING IN BREADTH NORTH AND SOUTH 55 FEET AND IN LENGTH 240 FEET BOUNDED BY POMPHRET, ETC. - BETWEEN LOTS 142 AND 144 --- LAND NOW CONVEYED TO JOHN REES.

(Note the name of John's wife, Mary, in the above.)

During John Wagle's Easton residence, the earlier settlers had protested "To the worshipful the Justices of the Ct. of Easton, Northampton," against the settlement of Catholics in their midst. The fifth name on the petition, which was dated June 18th, 1755, was John Wagle.

No further record of John Wagle appears in Easton, however, in 1765 a John Wagle arrived in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. Since this the year our ancestor John Wagle sold his Easton lot, this John at Greensburg may also prove to have been our ancestor. Further, descendants of the Westmoreland John Wagle claimed in 1890 that their ancestor John came from Easton, but gave Christina Johnston as the name of his wife, rather than Mary.

In 1783, the Westmoreland John Wagle died, leaving a will which is recorded as follows:

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN, I JOHN WAGLE OF THE TOWNSHIP OF HEMPFIELD IN THE COUNTY OF WESTMORELAND IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA BEING ADVANCED IN YEARS AND CONSEQUENTLY DRAWING ON TOWARDS MY END IN THIS WORLD AND ALSO BEING THROUGH THE GOODNESS OF GOD OF SOUND MEMORY AND JUDGEMENT THEREFORE CALLING TO MIND THE MORTALITY OF MY BODY AND THAT IT IS APPOINTED FOR ALL MEN TO DIE DO IN THIS FIRST DAY OF SEPTEMBER IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED AND EIGHTY THREE MAKE AND ORDAIN THIS MY LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT, AND DESIRES IT MAY BE RECEIVED AS SUCH BY ALL. PROVED JANY. 15TH, 1803 AND RECORDED

Please note that I can offer no proof that the John Wagle of the foregoing instrument is identical with our John (I) of Easton. However the following points are suggested for speculation:-

Our John Wagle (II) had a Jacob Wagle, probably his brother, living with him in Kentucky, who appears in tax lists of Madison County, Kentucky, in 1792 and through 1796. Note that the above John had sons John and Jacob - neither of whom raised families in Westmoreland County, although his other children are mentioned frequently in records of Old Zion's and Brush Creek Churchs, both in Westmoreland County, and in various county records.

Children of the Westmoreland County John Wagle were:-

John (possibly our ancester, John II)
Elizabeth
Sarah - married Michael Schmidt
Abraham - married Maria Christina Brinich
Isaac - married Maria Catherina Keppel
Jacob (possibly our relative Jacob, of Kentucky)

JEMIMA TODD'S PARENTS

Jemima Todd, wife of John Wagle (II) was the daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Todd, of Pennsylvania and North Carolina.

Thomas Todd died in 1777, by tradition the victim of wounds received as a Revolutionary soldier. A statement from the Adjutant General's office, United States War Department, reads: "The records of this office show that Thomas Todd served in the Revolutionary War as a musician in McGlauhan's Company, 7th North Carolina Regiment. He enlisted _____, 1777, for three years, and died September ____, 1777. No further record relative to him or to his service has been found." This record is also found in North Carolina State Records, and an entry showing that a Mr. Philip Fishburn received pay (?as attorney?) in 1786, £ 38.8.6 for the service of Thomas Todd.

Thomas Todd had earlier served in the North Carolina troops under Captain Lawrence Thompson, enlisting May 1st, 1771 and serving until June 29th. He was paid for sixty days at 7s6d, or £ 6.0.0.

While no definite record of our Thomas Todd has been found in Pennsylvania, all branches of the family carry the tradition of his birth either in England or Pennsylvania, as well as residence in Pennsylvania prior to settling in Rowan County, North Carolina. In Rowan County we find another Todd family, headed by Caleb Todd, Sr., which originated in Easton, Pennsylvania -- home of our Wagles, and which migrated in a body to Madison County, Kentucky at the same time as Thomas Todd's children and the Wagles and Coxes. Caleb was probably the brother of our Thomas, and the records of his children's pension claims for Revolutionary War activities provide a clue to the Pennsylvania home of our Thomas and Elizabeth Todd.

Thomas Todd's will, probated in Rowan County, North Carolina in 1777, names his wife Elizabeth and the children noted below:

Joseph Todd (b. circa 1748, married Ann Crose in Pennsylvania, moved from Rowan County, North Carolina, to Madison County, Kentucky, where he died in 1812.)

Thomas Todd (married Jean Simonton, and moved from Rowan County, North Carolina, prior to 1790. Was probably one of the three Thomas Todds in Madison County, Kentucky, 1785.)

Elizabeth Cox (believed to be wife of Benjamin Cox, father of Jesse who married Mary Wagle.)

Jemima Todd (wife of John Wagle)

JOHN WAGLE (II) AND JEMIMA TODD

John Wagle was born October 9, 1751 at Easton, Northhampton County, Pennsylvania. The date of his birth he recorded in a Family Bible in which he also entered the births, deaths, and marriages of his wife, his children, and many of his grandchildren. The flyleaf of this Bible is inscribed "John Wagle His Book June Ye 14, 1807." The Book bears imprint of its publisher, Matthew Carey, Philadelphia, 1805. His birth entry reads "John Wagle the son of John Wagle and Mary his wife was born the ninth day of October old stile in the year 1751."

John moved to North Carolina (Note:-one source says he was born in North Carolina) where he is claimed to have served three years as a Lieutenant of the North Carolina Line, serving under a Captain Hedrick "in an engagement against the Tories on the Pee Dee River." The family mustered affidavits of this service from North Carolina neighbors, but in spite of extensive court attendance, etc., proof of service was never accepted by the pension authorities.

Rowan County, North Carolina, appears to have been John Wagle's home, for it was here he married Jemima Todd, on 26 March, 1778. Jemima, daughter of Thomas Todd and wife Elizabeth, was born January 19, 1759, probably in Pennsylvania.

This family moved to Kentucky in 1790 or 1791. In 1792, both John and Jacob "Wegel" are listed as landowners in the Madison County Tax Lists. Here John 's family settled and were slaveowners, making their home on Otter Creek and at Foxtown (now Whitehall) just north of Richmond, Kentucky, on the Richmond-Lexington Turnpike.

John Wagle died in Madison County on July 28, 1818; Jemima Todd Wagle survived him, dying April 30, 1850, at the home of her son Thomas Wagle. Their children are:-

Jesse Cox, son of Benjamin Cox (born in South Carolina, lived North Carolina and Kentucky - Revolutionary Soldier, companion of Squire Boone, and Ohio Pioneer, buried in Dayton, Ohio) was born in Rowan County, North Carolina, in 1780, and died in the spring of 1861, in Madison County.

2H JEMIMA COX SHIFFLETTE

Jemima Cox (note - named for Jemima Wagle, her grandmother) was born 8 November, 1822, Foxtown, Madison County, Kentucky, and died at Vandalia, Ohio, in 1881.

She married Hillory Shifflette, son of Fountain and Rebecca Shifflette, on June 27, 1843, in Madison County.

2H4 - John Shifflette - born 11 March, 1861; unmarried.

3 - ISAAC WAGLE

Isaac Wagle, third child of John and Jemima Wagle, was born August 22, 1783.

On June 21, 1810, in Madison County, Kentucky, he married his cousin Phoebe Todd, daughter of Joseph Todd and Ann Crose, who was born about 1784 in Rowan County, North Carolina.

Isaac Wagle does not appear in the census records of Madison County after 1820. In that year, ten years after the marriage, he and his wife are shown with no children. His death date is given as April 3, 1841 in his father's Bible.

Phoebe Todd Wagle remarried; her marriage to John Hawkins, on October 28, 1841, is recorded in Madison County, Kentucky. It would thus appear that Isaac and his wife had lived with other members of the family, in Madison County, but had not maintained a separate household during the years before his death, although he was at one time owner of Madison County land.

The pension claim developed by John Wagle's children does not indicate that any children were born to Issac and Phoebe, confirming the census record before noted. Also, at the sale of his personal property upon his death, no children are recorded.

4 - JOHN WAGLE III

The desire of John and Jemima Wagle to perpetuate the name John Wagle is evidenced by the fact that their first son was named John, and after his death, their fourth child was also given the name.

John Wagle, Jr. (so called in his father's Bible) was born October 17, 1785, in Rowan County, North Carolina, and was not more than five years old when his parents removed to Madison County. Here he married Mary Owens, on November 4, 1806.

Mary Owens' relative, Cornelius Owens, was bondsman at the marriage. The names of her parents are not known to the compiler. She was born in North Carolina, in 1789, and died sometime after 1860 at the home of her son, Jeptha Wagle, at Arenzville, Cass County, Illinois.

The date and place of John Wagle's death are not known. The family moved sometime after 1830 to Brown County, Illinois, and it is presumed he died in that county.

Children of John and Mary Owens Wagle are:-

4A - Matilda Wagle - born October 22, 1807, Foxtown, Madison County, Kentucky.
4B - Elizabeth Wagle - married James Gentry. History follows.
4C - Jonathan or Jeptha Wagle - married Phoebe Todd. History follows.
4D - Jemima Wagle - born March 8, 1814, Foxtown, Madison County, Kentucky.
4E - Lewis Wagle - married Julia Ann Venard. History follows.

Also, one or more of the following may have been children of this couple, since the 1830 census indicated a greater number of children than were recorded in the Bible records:-

(?)4F - Marion Wagle (or Weigle) of Schuyler County, Illinois (adjoins Brown County) who on May 30, 1850, married Miss Lucinda Billings.

(?)4G - Mary Ann Wagle, who on September 19, 1841, in Brown County, married Daniel Brown.

(?)4H - Malinda Wagle (or Waggle), who on November 2, 1848, in Brown County, married William A. B. Arnold. (Note:-John and Mary Owens Wagle had a granddaughter by this name. Also, this may possibly be the Matilda of the Wagle Bible, although this would be late for her marriage.)

4B ELIZABETH WAGLE GENTRY

Elizabeth Wagle, born July 15, 1809, Foxtown, Madison County, Kentucky, was married on May 21, 1828, in Madison County, to James H. Gentry. James was son of Brightberry Gentry and probably of his first wife, Martha Jones; he was born in 1809, in Madison County.

The ten children of this couple include:

4B1 - John N. Gentry, born about 1830, Madison County, Kentucky.

4B5 - James Gentry, born 1838, Madison County, Kentucky.

4B7 - Brightberry Gentry, born 1841, Madison County, Kentucky.

4B8 - Martha P. Gentry, born 1847-8, Cass County, Illinois.

4B9 - Ellen F. Gentry, born 1850, Cass County, Illinois.

4B10 - Christopher Gentry, born 1853, Cass County, Illinois.

4C JEPTHA WAGLE

Although the Wagle Bible records his name as "Jonathan", this son of John and Mary Owens Wagle is generally found as Jeptha Wagle. He was born May 5, 1812, in Madison County, Kentucky, and died during December, 1860, at Arenzville, Cass County, Illinois.

Jeptha married his second cousin, Phoebe Todd (daughter of Isaac) in Madison County, Kentucky, on February 10, 1833, about the year in which his parents and family moved from the State. Phoebe was born in 1812, in Madison County, and died about 1890, at Beardstown, Cass County, Illinois.

The record of this family between 1833 and 1839 is obscure; certain census records give birth places of children born during this period as North Carolina. (Question:-Did the family return to that State to participate in settlement of an estate?). In 1839, the family is again in Kentucky, and by 1841 is located in Illinois.

The children of this couple, whose histories will be found subsequently, were:

4C1 - Julia Ann Wagle (Unland)
4C2 - Sarah Wagle (Josting)
4C3 - Mary Ann Wagle (Belner)
4C4 - Nancy R. Wagle (Unland)
4C5 - Isaac Todd Wagle
4C6 - Malinda Wagle (Rohn)
4C7 - Esther (Hester) Wagle (Coffield)
4C8 - Elizabeth Wagle (Wilson)
4C9 - Arthusa Jane Wagle (Hentz)
4C10 - Cynthia Ann Wagle (Buck)
4C11 - Martha E. Wagle (Buck)

4C1 JULIA ANN WAGLE UNLAND

Julia Ann Wagle, born about 1834, married in Cass County, Illinois, 1853, John Frederick Unland, and died before 1857, in which year her husband remarried. (See 4C4, Nancy R.
